THE SOUTH-CAROLINA AND COUNTRY GAZETTE; JOURNAL.

Containing the freſheſt Advices, both Foreign and Domeſtic.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 16, 1773.

LONDON, NOVEMBER 17.

IT is happy that the citizens of London have, at laſt, by their noble ſtruggles, obtained a majority in the Court of Aldermen in favour of conſtitutional liberty.

Notwithſtanding the private quarrels ſubſiſting among the patriots, yet we ſee they heartily join againſt the common enemy.

Advices are juſt received from Liſbon, ſays a correſpondent, that the duties on wines exported to England are juſt taken off, as alſo the duty on all Engliſh goods imported there. The duty on wines to America ſtill continues.

His Pruſſian Majeſty has directed the pictures of all the great officers who fell during the late war, to be painted by the beſt maſters in Germany, in order to adorn a ſpacious room at Potſdam, which is to be called the Hall of Heroes.

Extract of a letter from Cairo, September 7.

"The Chiek Daher and Ali Bey meet with much more reſiſtance at Joppa than they expected. After 50 days ſiege they are no forwarder than they were the firſt day. If Ali Bey ſhould prove unſucceſsful in this enterpriſe he will not be able to invade Egypt, where at preſent all is perfectly quiet."

Extract of a letter from Peterſburgh, October 20.

"Count Gregory Orlow, who received about nine years ago, from the Emperor of Germany, a diploma of Prince of the Holy Empire, but had never made uſe of it, has now taken up that title, with the approbation of her Imperial Majeſty, who has ſent an order to the Senate to acknowledge him in that quality, and to make it known throughout this empire."

NOVEMBER 19. The Cruger, Smith, from North Carolina to Briſtol, is loſt in Padſtow Bay.

Letters from Warſaw mention, that the Grand Chancellor of Lithuania and Poland has lately ſet off with his moſt valuable effects for Holland.

A letter from Dantzick, ſays, "Notwithſtanding the reports on your ſide the water, this city will very ſhortly be in a more flouriſhing condition than ever; for though ſeveral new taxes have been impoſed by his Pruſſian Majeſty, yet as many old ones have been aboliſhed, which were nearly as oppreſſive."

The much talked of reviſion of the penal laws of this kingdom, will, we hear, be an object of parliamentary conſideration, when proper perſons will be appointed to undertake the arduous taſk.

The ſoldiers now in garriſon in our African ſettlements are, we hear, ſhortly to be relieved.

NOVEMBER 20. Advices are received from Holland, that the Spaniſh ſettlement of Acapulco in the South Seas, is entirely deſtroyed, and that above 500 ſouls periſhed. Whether by earthquake or otherwiſe, is not mentioned.

At yeſterday's Common Council Mr. Alderman Wilkes reported from the Committee to conſider the moſt effectual means of lowering, or at leaſt preventing an increaſe in the price of corn and other proviſions; that they had drawn up a petition to parliament, recommending the ſtoppage of the diſtillation of corn, and the permitting the importation of all ſorts of grain, duty-free. A motion was then made to add the words, "the prohibiting the making of ſtarch," which paſſed in the negative, and the petition, as reported from the Committee, was ordered to be preſented to the Houſe of Commons by Mr. Sheriff Lewes and the City's Remembrancer, Mr. Sheriff Oliver being in parliament.

NOVEMBER 21. General Conway having accepted the government of Jerſey, his ſeat in parliament is vacant. But upon this caſe will ariſe a queſtion, Whether he is not diſqualified? for all Governors of Plantations, Iſlands, &c. &c. are diſqualified by law from ſitting in parliament. The Miniſtry, who are not willing to loſe ſo able and ſteadfaſt an advocate, ſay, this government is not within the act. The aſſertion however is an inſult upon every man of common underſtanding in the kingdom. The matter is clear. By law he cannot ſit. If he is allowed to ſit, it will be another violation of the law, that may be added to many which have been daringly and wantonly committed, to ſerve the dirty purpoſes of a corrupt and deſpotic court.

The celebrated Thomas Bradſhaw, brother to Lord Holderneſſe's houſekeeper, and Clerk of the Weſtminſter-market, where the members are bought, has obtained the reverſion of Lord Barrington's titles. The hiſtory of this little job is curious. Bradſhaw has apartments at Hampton Court, fitted up in the moſt coſtly manner at the public expence. A little while ago, the King and Queen took it in their heads to pay a viſit to Mr. and Mrs. Bradſhaw at Hampton Court, and this pretty partie quarrée drank tea together. Bradſhaw, who has always an eye to ſomething for himſelf, took an opportunity of ſtealing upon the unguarded moments of his Prince, and obtain a promiſe of the title of Viſcount Barrington, upon the preſent Lord's deceaſe. But whether little Chamier, or the wily Bradſhaw, is to have his Lordſhip's place is not yet ſettled.

NOVEMBER 23. Letters from Senegal mention, that a violent ſhock of an earthquake had lately been felt at Goree, on the coaſt of Africa, in the poſſeſſion of the French, which had choaked up the mouth of the harbour ſo much as to render the navigation very dangerous.

Extract of a letter from Berlin, November 6.

"The King willing to encourage and extend the commerce of his ſubjects, granted a patent the 14th of October, for the eſtabliſhment of an aſſociation, or a company of maritime commerce, which will be compoſed of 2400 actions each, valued at 500 crowns, which will make a fund of 12,000 crowns; and to encourage his ſubjects and foreigners to intereſt themſelves in and take theſe actions, his Majeſty has taken ſeven-eighths of them (2100 actions) for his own account, which makes a capital of one million and 50,000 crowns."

Laſt Wedneſday died at his Lordſhip's ſeat at Sirlby, near Blyth, in Nottinghamſhire, William Monkton Arundel, Viſcount Galway, and Baron of Killard, of the kingdom of Ireland, Member of parliament for Pontefract in Yorkſhire, Receiver of the Crown and Fee farm rents of Durham, Northumberland, &c. His Lordſhip is ſucceeded in title and eſtate by his eldeſt ſon, now Lord Viſcount Galway, a young Nobleman of 22 years of age.

Extract of a letter from Paris, November 13.

"Some Gentlemen of Normandy have been arreſted at their own houſes and ſent to the Baſtile, or to Vincennes, for it is not certainly known which. Among thoſe who are known are the Marquis de Coudray, the Marquis de Try, and the Marquis de Monpeuſon; Mr. du Foſſé, Councellor of the Great Chamber, and Mr. de Belbeuf, late Attorney-General; beſides Mr. le Maire, the celebrated advocate before mentioned. Twenty-five members of that parliament who were at firſt baniſhed into the country, have ſince received Lettres de Cachet, which direct them to go farther off. The volunteers of Soubiſe are ordered into Normandy, to prevent the diſturbances that are apprehended there.-----Mr. de Breugnon is appointed Commander in Chief of the navy at Breſt."

It is reported, that about a week ago, the Duke de Choiſeul was ſeized at his Caſtle, by an expreſs order of the King, and committed cloſe priſoner in the Baſtile, for having been concerned in a plot intended to be put into execution by the Prince of Conti. So ſtrict are the police at this time, that if the names of Conti and Choiſeul are mentioned by any perſon in Paris, he is immediately taken up.

Laſt week 26 commiſſions paſſed the Great Seal in caſes of bankrupts only.

The people of Paris are in the greateſt conſternation at the confinement of the Prince of Conti; and the Court are as much aſtoniſhed at their bold declarations in behalf of his Highneſs. In ſhort, every dreadful conſequence is to be expected from this impriſonment. What with the diſcontent of the poor for want of food, and the contempt of the Nobles to the Court, nothing is expected in France but a civil war. The haughtineſs of Madam Barre, and the inſolence of the King, will at laſt involve them in every melancholy diſtreſs that luxury, vice, and rage, can raiſe againſt them.

On Thurſday next both Houſes of Parliament are to meet, not for the purpoſe of ſerving the Public, but the King. It cannot be amiſs to give a hint to the Public of ſome part of the buſineſs.

The firſt thing is India. A new committee is to be appointed to enquire into the ſtate of the Company's affairs. Upon the report of the Committee a bill will be brought in after Chriſtmas. The King's wiſh is, to have the military in his own hands; and Parliament is to give it him. He loves the military. They are the fit inſtruments of deſpotiſm.

The Land and Malt Taxes to be voted before Chriſtmas.

Either before Chriſtmas, or one of the firſt things after Chriſtmas, a meſſage is to be ſent from the King, requeſting THREE HUNDRED THOUSAND POUNDS to pay his debts!---- Parliament will not heſitate at voting what it is to receive. It will be done as before, without the accounts. But every man, not wholly loſt to virtue, not wholly immerſed in ſuch ſhameful depravity and corruption, will be ſtruck with horror at the ſuperlative impudence of the demand.

The army, the favourite of the King, is to remain; (it is 70 regiments) but the navy, the favourite of the public, the natural ſtrength and ſecurity of the kingdom, and for which no expence was ever grudged, is to be reduced. The number of ſeamen this year is to be four thouſand leſs than laſt. This meaſure proves to demonſtration, that the Miniſtry are reſolved upon peace.

A queſtion upon General Conway being diſqualified, another upon the Ohio grant, another upon a code of law for Canada, &c. &c.

NOVEMBER 25. Sunday his Majeſty's ſchooner the Sultana arrived at Spithead expreſs from Admiral Montagu, and brings advice, that the people of Rhode-Iſland are ſo exaſperated at the reſtrictions he has laid on their ſmuggling, that they will not allow an officer of any of the King's ſhips to come on ſhore. They inſiſt that men of war have no authority to ſearch their ſhips, or interrupt their trade, and threaten to burn all that the Admiral ſtations for that purpoſe.

In the courſe of the laſt ſeaſon twenty-eight Eaſt-India ſhips have arrived in England from the Company's different ſettlements.

NOVEMBER 27. The Diſpatch ſloop of war, which was ſent home expreſs by the Admiral at Antigua, with an account of the hurricane at the Leeward Iſlands, foundered at ſea; the crew were taken up by the Panther man of war from Newfoundland, and landed laſt Wedneſday at Portſmouth, as were the letters brought by the Diſpatch.

Letters from Edinburgh mention, that Mr. Bankes and his companions were very hoſpitably received by the inhabitants of Iceland, which place has lately ſuffered very ſeverely from the ſmall pox, and a putrid fever raging there. The people are repreſented to be ſtrong, ſimple, honeſt, and induſtrious.

The HUMBLE ADDRESS of the Right Honourable the LORDS SPIRITUAL and TEMPORAL, in Parliament aſſembled; preſented to his MAJESTY on Friday November 27, 1772.

MOST GRACIOUS SOVEREIGN,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, in Parliament aſſembled, return our humble and moſt unfeigned Thanks to your Majeſty, for your moſt gracious Speech from the Throne.

We acknowledge your Majeſty's Goodneſs, in the gracious Aſſurances we have received, that your Majeſty would have conſulted our private Convenience, if ſome very intereſting public Concerns had not required the early Meeting of Parliament.

Your Majeſty may be aſſured, that we will apply ourſelves diligently to whatever may concern the Commerce or Revenue of the Kingdom, or the Rights and Intereſts of any Part of your Majeſty's Subjects: That we are thoroughly convinced the Affairs of the Eaſt India Company deſerve and require our moſt ſerious Conſideration; and that we will not neglect an Object of ſuch national Importance.

Permit us, Sir, to expreſs the Happineſs we feel, at having Reaſon to hope, from the Communication your Majeſty has been pleaſed to make to us, that the War, which has ſo long prevailed in one Part of Europe, is drawing to a Concluſion. A Happineſs that is greatly increaſed by the additional Proſpect it affords of the Duration of Peace; which, we truſt, the Alterations that have happened in Europe will not, in their Conſequences, affect; being ever firmly perſuaded, that your Majeſty's uniform Endeavours to preſerve the general Tranquillity will be directed, on all Occaſions, by a due Regard to the Honour of of your Crown, and the Intereſts of your People.

With Hearts deeply affected, we learn that the Produce of the late Harveſt has not given the Relief ſo eſſentially neceſſary to the poorer Sort of your Majeſty's Subjects: And, conſcious that we can do no Act ſo acceptable to your Majeſty, as exerting our utmoſt Efforts to contribute to the Eaſe and Comfort of all your People, we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that this Object, which your paternal Care and Tenderneſs have ſo particularly pointed out, ſhall engage our utmoſt Attention.

The HUMBLE ADDRESS of the HOUSE of COMMONS to the KING; preſented to his Majeſty on Saturday Nov. 28, 1772.

MOST GRACIOUS SOVEREIGN,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Great Britain, in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave to return your Majeſty our humble Thanks, for your moſt gracious Speech from the Throne.

We acknowledge, with the warmeſt Gratitude, your Majeſty's great Goodneſs, in your conſtant Attention to whatever concerns either the Commerce and Revenue of your Kingdom at large, or the private Rights and Intereſts of conſiderable Numbers among your People. And we return our moſt dutiful Thanks to your Majeſty, for having given us an early Opportunity of informing ourſelves fully of the true State of the Affairs of the Eaſt India Company: And we aſſure your Majeſty, that, impreſſed with a due Senſe of the great Importance of the Buſineſs, we will, without Delay, proceed to the Conſideration of it; and endeavour to provide, in the moſt effectual Manner that the Nature of the Caſe will admit, for the common Benefit and Security of all the great and weighty Intereſts recommended to our Care by your Majeſty.

Your faithful Commons cannot but rejoice, to hear that your Majeſty has Reaſon to hope that the War, which has ſo long unhappily prevailed in one Part of Europe, is now drawing to a Concluſion, and that the favourable Proſpect of the Duration of Peace, which the Probability of this Event affords us, will not be affected by the Alterations which have lately happened: And we feel the higheſt Satisfaction, at the Aſſurances, which your Majeſty continues to receive from Foreign Powers, of their pacific Diſpoſitions towards this Country; and at the ſame Time we moſt gratefully acknowledge your Majeſty's gracious Declaration, that it will be your conſtant Endeavour to preſerve the general Tranquillity, as far as is conſiſtent with the Honour of your Crown, and the Intereſts of your People.

Your Majeſty may be aſſured, that your faithful Commons will chearfully grant ſuch Supplies as the Services of the enſuing Year ſhall require: And although we are convinced, that it muſt ever be for the Intereſt and Reputation of your Crown to have a conſiderable Strength at Sea; yet we learn with much Satisfaction, that your Majeſty has been enabled, during the Courſe of this Year, to proceed in the Reduction of your Naval Eſtabliſhment.

Permit us to offer to your Majeſty our moſt humble and unfeigned Thanks, for the paternal and affectionate Concern, which your Majeſty has expreſſed, for the Diſtreſſes which the Poor continue to ſuffer, from the Dearneſs of Corn. And we aſſure your Majeſty, that a diligent Attention ſhall not be wanting, on our Part, ſo conſider of the moſt proper Means for preventing the encreaſe of the Evil; and for alleviating the preſent Diſtreſſes, as far as they are in their Nature capable of Relief; being perſuaded, that we cannot render any Service more acceptable to your Majeſty, than by contributing to the Happineſs of all your People.

[His Majeſty's Anſwers to the above Addreſſes were in our laſt.]

NOVEMBER 28. It has been aſſerted that Lord Hillſborough was offered, and refuſed a penſion of 1000 l. a year upon the Iriſh eſtabliſhment; but we are aſſured that his Lordſhip nobly ſcorned to receive any pecuniary gratification on his leaving office; and when he voluntarily reſigned an employment of 3000 l. a year, Government would by no means inſult him with an offer of a penſion, which would ſcarcely be deemed conſiderable enough for a private Secretary.

DECEMBER 8. There is a talk that the Earl of Dunbar's pardon is concluded on; which if true, will enable his Lordſhip to ſpend the remainder of his days in England.

Yeſterday after the buſineſs of the day was gone through, and Mr. Cooper ſent to the Lords with the Iriſh proviſion bill, the Houſe of Commons waited a conſiderable time for Lord North. The buſineſs that was expected to come on was ſomething relative to the Army: However, Lord North arrived about a quarter after three, and his preſence ſoon proved that there was but one part of the Houſe in the ſecret of what was intended to be tranſacted; for his Lordſhip had ſcarcely taken his ſtation, before Mr. Alderman Harley delivered a report from the Secret Committee in at the table, which was immediately read by the Clerk. This report contained a kind of hiſtorical relation of the different ſteps that had been taken at the India Houſe for the purpoſe of appointing a Superintending Commiſſion and Superviſion for the management of the Company's affairs at the three Preſidencies of Bengal, Fort St. George, and Bombay, commencing on the 29th of July laſt, and ending the 4th inſtant, with ſome remarks made thereon by the Committee. Immediately after the report was read, Mr. Alderman Harley made a motion for bringing in a bill to ſuſpend the execution of the ſaid Commiſſion for a time to be limited. This produced one of the warmeſt debates that has happened during this or the preceding ſeſſion. The advocates for the motion ſupported it principally on the following grounds: That the certain expence which would be incurred by ſuch a meaſure would at leaſt be 120,000 l. which in the preſent diſtreſſed ſtate of the Company, might produce the moſt dangerous and even fatal conſequences; That the Company ſtill perſiſting to give the finiſhing hand to the commiſſion, at a time they knew Parliament were taking the requiſite meaſures to put their affairs on a reſpectable and flouriſhing footing, made the preſent interpoſition highly, nay even abſolutely neceſſary, and that any promiſe, either made ſeparately or collectively from the Court of Directors, or from the individuals that compoſe it, that the Commiſſion ſhould be voluntarily ſuſpended, was by no means binding on the Proprietors, who had conſeſſedly the ſole power of controul in the laſt inſtance; on the other ſide it was contended, that the ſuſpenſion of a right, and its total annihilation, differed in reality very little; that the expence of the intended commiſſion, could not eſſentially or materially affect the intereſts of the Company, in point of expence; that the expence could not be conſidered as a new burden, becauſe the Superviſors were to be paid their ſeveral ſtipends or ſalaries, out of the ſaving: That as it was confeſſed on the other ſide, that the Proprietors alone had the power of appointing, it might be well preſumed that they were the beſt judges of what was for their own intereſt, and would never conſent to incur a ruinous or uſeleſs expence. That the meaſure had been adopted after the moſt full and mature conſideration, and was planned and intended to be executed in order to prevent ruin, not to purchaſe it, and finally, let the meaſure be big with advantage or deſtruction to the Company's affairs, the Court of Directors were resolved to suspend the execution till a full and digested report had been made by the Secret Committee. A few minutes before seven the question was called for and the house divided; Ayes 114, Noes 45.

DECEMBER 9. The last letters from the Hague advise, that a report prevails, that the Queen Caroline-Matilda of Denmark will soon return to Copenhagen, in consequence of a reconciliation between the King and her Majesty.

DECEMBER 10. We hear that 17,070 men have been voted for the service of the year 1773, to be stationed in Great-Britain, Guernsey, Minorca and Gibraltar; and 16,400 in North-America, and the West Indies; the whole expence of which will amount to one million, one hundred and odd thousand pounds: Sixty-five thousand and odd hundred pounds is to be defrayed by Ireland.

The four following noble personages, we hear, are soon to be raised to the dignity of Marquises, viz. the Earls of Guildford, Bristol and Hertford, and Viscount Townshend.

DECEMBER 12. According to private letters from Berlin, the regiments which compose the garrison of that capital, had received orders to hold themselves in readiness to march, with their tents, baggage, &c.

They write from Warsaw, that the King was going to make a journey in order to visit his estates in the district of Grodno. The same advices add, that the Austrian troops have actually taken possession of two towns which make a part of the patrimonial estate of the King of Poland.

DECEMBER 17. Yesterday the rice bill was read the first time, and ordered to be read a second time. One of the clauses in the above bill is, that it continue in force till the year 1780, and no longer. Another of the clauses in the above bill is, that a bounty of 6l. per barrel be paid on all rice imported into this kingdom, which is to be paid back on exportation.

The Secret Committee appointed by the House of Commons are indefatigable, and have, much to their honour, we hear, discovered such deep laid schemes of fraud, as will astonish the public when communicated. But whether they are ever to be communicated or not, is what the ministry themselves are yet undetermined upon, and therefore we cannot take upon us to give any farther information with respect to the subject to our readers.

The gentlemen who at the first idea of a Secret Committee, heroically declared their resolution not to attend it, if even summoned, have thought proper to change their sentiments, and tho' members themselves of an august Assembly, had not so much fortitude as the Printers to face the resentment of Parliament.

The opposition are not a little taken in with regard to the enquiry into the expedition to St. Vincent's; they did not expect that the Ministry would comply with the motion for laying all the papers relative to that transaction before the House; and therefore imagine that they have given government a sure triumph, where they only meant to lessen it in the general opinion of the kingdom.

DECEMBER 18. Yesterday the East India restraining bill was reported, and ordered to be engrossed. We hear the time limited in the above bill for restraining the superintending Commission is six months.

Yesterday the rice importation bill was read a second time, and several amendments made and agreed to.

Yesterday Lord Camden was again at Court, as was likewise Lord Lyttleton.

DECEMBER 19. Yesterday the Right Honourable the House of Peers broke up at three o'clock; having received and read, the first time, the bill for allowing the free importation of rice from America, and the land-tax bill.

Yesterday the reading of the East India supervision bill came on, according to order, in the House of Commons; Mr. Impey and Mr. Adair attended as Council, and spoke for near three hours: Mr. Wilkes, one of the witnesses who had been ordered to attend, was then called in and examined. Mr. Hoole, Mr. Tookey, and Mr. Lascelles, were next examined; afterwards Mr. Dempster and another member were examined in their places; after which the evidence closed, and Mr. Dempster got up and began the debate; in which Lord Clive, Mr. Burke, and several other members spoke. At half after eleven at night the House divided, when the numbers were 153 for the third reading, 28 against it. The House immediately adjourned.

Lord North, we hear, is of opinion that there is no occasion whatsoever for the abolition of the East India Company; the Proprietors, he thinks may hold stock as safely under Government as under the Directors, and therefore the system may perhaps continue, though under the administration of an effectual set of managers.

The motion made by Governor Pownal on Tuesday last relative to a clause in the bill for regulating Court Martials in America was, that after the words, "Commander in Chief," be inserted the words, "of his Majesty's Forces;" and after some debates, the clause was again read, and the chairman put the question, whether the words Commander in Chief of his Majesty's Forces should stand part of the motion, which was agreed to without opposition.

By letters from Madrid we learn, that advices have been received of a dangerous insurrection in one of the Spanish settlements in the Philippine Islands.

Advices from Paris mention that the troubles of that capital have not as yet subsided, but every day affords fresh matter for their increase.

They write from the Hague, that three ships of war and some transports are now getting ready in the Texel, and will soon sail with troops, &c. on board, for the East Indies, some disagreeable news having lately been received from thence.

The patent for creating Lord Holland Earl of Rochester is preparing in the proper offices; and as his eldest son Stephen Fox has no issue, the title is to descend to Mr. Charles-James Fox, his Lordship's second son.

Captain Cartwright, of the navy, is arrived in town with two Indian Chiefs, and their squaws, from the Labrador Coast. This gentleman about three years ago brought over a squaw and her son from the same place; who were carried back, after being seen by the King and Royal Family, loaded with presents.

The keels of two second rate ships of war are ordered to be laid at Plymouth. They are to be built with several new improvements.

The various plans proposed by various Directors in a great Company, instead of tending to remove the difficulties under which the Proprietors labour must contribute materially to advance the views of Government. Clashing in the most material points with each other, they prove nothing but the impropriety of continuing a mighty empire any longer in the hands of so fluctuating a body, where a few individuals annually chosen have the management of all affairs, and have hourly opportunities of creating immense fortunes by sacrificing the interest of the Proprietors.

DECEMBER 21. Yesterday the Count de Maltzhan, Ambassador from the court of Prussia arrived here from that kingdom.

By a gentleman just arrived from Oxford, we have authority to assure the public, that the report some time since published in the London papers of subscriptions at matriculation, to the Thirty-nine Articles, being in that university abolished, is totally void of foundation; and that the report took rise from a determination of the heads of houses, in the Delegates room, to propose the question at some ensuing convocation.

At the last board of Admiralty, the fitting of the men of war now in the different dock yards was taken into consideration, and fixed, and orders were sent to the Commissioners of each yard for carrying the same into execution.

This day his Majesty went to the House of Peers, and gave the Royal Assent to the following bills, viz. the bill for continuing the duties on malt, rum, cyder and perry, for the year 1773; the bill for allowing the free importation of rice into this kingdom from any of his Majesty's colonies in America, for a limited time, and for encouraging the making of starch from rice; the bill to restrain the East India Company, for a limited time, from making any appointment of Commissioners for superintending and regulating the Company's affairs at their presidencies in the East Indies; and to such other bills as were ready.

The Parliament will adjourn on Wednesday for the holidays, till Tuesday the 19th of January next.

By the report from the Secret Committee it appears, that a certain great Company have now in their warehouses no less than 16,000,000 pounds of tea; a quantity more than sufficient to answer the sale of three succeeding years. It likewise appears, that the value of the Company's effects in the city of London, that is, the India-house, and the different warehouses, as estimated by a surveyor expressly employed for the purpose, amount to about 214,000l. It is now beyond question that the whole amount of the Company's nett stock, after paying all their debts, will fall short half a million, unless Government should agree to give them a compensation for their territorial revenues, or reimburse them for the vast sums laid out on the fortifications in Bengal. Should the former be the case, the proprietors will not divide twenty per cent. even on the original stock, which would not amount to twelve per cent. according to the current price.

On Saturday the long depending cause between the colony of Connecticut and the Mohegan Indians, for settling the limits or boundaries, which has been in a course of litigation upwards of thirty years, was determined in favour of the colony, by the Lords of his Majesty's Privy Council, at the Cockpit, Whitehall.

DECEMBER 22. The rice bill that received the Royal assent, will be a great means of lowering the price of bread, as such immense quantities of wheat, used in the making of starch, will now be saved for the relief of the industrious poor, by substituting rice in that manufactory.

Yesterday on a motion made in the Upper House, for the second reading of the East India Supervision bill, the D----- of R-----d got up and opposed the same; and it is said, at the conclusion of his speech, moved for a conference with the other House, which was objected to by several of the Right Honourable Members, and upon a division in the House, there appeared five for the motion, and twenty against it.

It is likewise said, two other motions were made, one of which was, that the Commission, appointing the Supervisors to go to India, should be laid before the House as this day; and the other, for the Chairman, or Deputy Chairman, to give in an account of what the expence of sending those gentlemen might amount to; both of which met with the same fate as the first motion.

Supervisors will certainly go out, and will be equally appointed by the Directors and the Government; the Secretary to the Supervision will be appointed by the first Lord of the Treasury, and will be given to a Counsellor eminent in the law. Another creation is made by Government, entitled, Attorney General of Bengal.

We are informed that a very strict inspection is ordered to be made into the accounts of the Treasury and Navy.

Lord Clive, it is said, is much talked of as an Ambassador to a foreign court.

It is asserted, that an addition to the salaries of the Scotch Judges will soon take place.

It was reported this morning on 'Change, that some letters just received from Warsaw mention that the Imperial General has publicly taken possession of that capital for his Master.

Yesterday a person belonging to a public office shot himself. He was on Sunday detected committing an unnatural crime with a lad about sixteen years of age.

Last night about seven o'clock, a dreadful fire broke out at Mr. Hunter's, a master-carpenter, in Fetter-lane, Fleet-street, which entirely consumed the same, with all the furniture, &c. in less than an hour. It immediately catched six or seven other houses in West-Harding-street, and burnt them with uncommon fury.

BRISTOL, December 24. We have received the following agreeable intelligence from the West: Corn drops in price at Plymouth and Modbury; beef also begins to be cheaper; good rumps and flanks are sold in Plymouth market for two-pence halfpenny a pound. Bright barley, which was lately 7s. a bag, is down to 6s. sixteen gallons. The same account of the falling of barley we have received from the markets in Dorsetshire; and of the fall of cheese 5s. or 6s. per hundred in the markets of Somersetshire. An undeniable proof that there is no real scarcity, or any necessity for fixing things at the extravagant price they have been at for some time; and that the Legislature can, if they please, bring provisions to a moderate price.

SAVANNAH, (in Georgia) February 3.

Yesterday arrived here from London, last from Plymouth, the brigantine Darnell, Captain Darnell, in which came passengers Basil Cowper, Esq; and Mrs. Cowper.

Extract of a letter from Barbados, dated January 12.

"We have had news from St. Vincent; our troops make but little way into the Indian quarters, and that with much bloodshed; in a word, we are worsted, and many more of the Christians than the Savages lost; indeed the cause we are fighting for is bad and a shameful one."

CHARLES-TOWN, FEBRUARY 16.

ON Monday last, was launched at Beaufort, Port-Royal, a fine new Ship, called the Atlantic, intended for the London Trade, to be commanded by Captain John Maitland, burthen 280 Tons, built of Live-Oak, by Mr. James Black, and is esteemed, by good Judges, to be the compleatest Vessel ever built in this Province, both in Respect to Workmanship and Materials.

The same Day was launched at Hilton Head, a fine Ship, of 420 Tons, built of Live-Oak, by Mr. Robert Watts, to be commanded by Captain Caldwell, and is also esteemed a compleat Vessel.

A fine Ship is building at Hobcaw, near this Town, by Messrs. Beebie and Manson, for Captain Alexander Urquhart.

We have the Pleasure to inform the Public, that Ship Building is carried on with great Spirit in this Province, and that the Merchants at Home, finding how much superior our Timber is to that of the Northern Provinces, have contracted for the building of several Vessels, which are to be ready by the next Crop.

Tuesday last his Excellency Sir James Wright, Bart. set out by Land from hence for his Government of Georgia.

A CONSIGNMENT

Of the several ARTICLES undermentioned, which may be had at his Printing-Office in Elliott-Street, on the most reasonable Terms, viz.

A FRESH PARCEL of Dr. KEYSER's GENUINE PILLS,

With FULL DIRECTIONS for their Use in all CASES. Where may be seen, A NARRATIVE of the Effects of Dr. KEYSER's MEDICINE, with an Account of its ANALYSIS, by the Members of the Royal Academy of Science.

Dr. HILL's genuine TINCTURE of VALERIAN. This pleasant Cordial and enlivening Medicine, is good against all Nervous Disorders, Fits, Head-Achs, Weakness, Heaviness, and Lowness of Spirits, Dimness of the Sight, Vapours and Melancholy, all Kinds of Convulsions, and Hysteric Complaints, Epilepsies, as also against the Sickness of the Stomach, and Flatulencies, Obstructions, and the Convulsive Asthma, &c. The proper Use in all the above Cases, may be seen in the Directions given with each Bottle.

ESSENCE of BALM of GILEAD, a grand Restorative of decayed Nature, good in all Seminal Weaknesses, Hypochondriacal and Nervous Disorders, with the Variety of Symptoms which indicate a weak and infirm Constitution.

Its cordial and balmy Quality, renders it also an agreeable palatable Liquor, and prodigiously refreshing in the sultry Heat of Summer; preventing those Sinkings which over-power the Spirits in hot Weather. The proper Use of this noble Medicine may be seen in the Directions.

Dr. BOERHAAVE's GRAND BALSAM of HEALTH. An admirable Remedy for the Dry Belly-Ach, Cholic, Griping in the Bowels, Pain in the Stomach; it cleanses the Stomach, and procures an Appetite.

Where also may be had,

JOYCE's GREAT AMERICAN BALSAM, extracted from the best Medicinal Herbs, &c. for the Cure of the following Disorders, incident to human Nature; proved from Experience in New-York, Long-Island, and elsewhere, to equal, and rather exceed any Balsam, Essence, or Elixir, &c. exported from Europe here, for the several Disorders hereafter mentioned.

For common green or fresh Wounds, it heals at once or twice dressing, by closing the Lips of the Wound, and laying on the Wound a Pledgit of Lint dipt in the Balsam. In Nervous Wounds, where the Blood Vessels are divided, &c. it stops the Blood immediately, and heals by a few Applications. For the Cure of the most inveterate Ulcers, only wash them and keep them clean, using first if there be any proud Flesh, a common Caustick, to take the Excrescence away, then apply the Balsam on Lint. If the Ulcers should happen to be fistulous, inject by a Syringe, and after close the Orifice with a Pledgit dipt in the Balsam, and so repeat. There are Witnesses undeniable of the Balsam alone curing a Fistula in Ano, now present in New-York: The Author of this Balsam, (under God) will engage to cure a Fistula in Ano, even if the Rectum is perforated, without Incision, except as much by a Lancet to make Way for Injection, and no more. For the Cure of Colds, attended with violent Coughing, Pains in the Breast, Inflammation in the Throat and Glands, Difficulty of Breathing, being obstructed by tough viscid Phlegm; by taking a Tea Spoonful of the Balsam, mixed with Sugar or Honey, it quickly cures, taken twice a Day, Morning fasting, and at Night going to Bed. It is exceeding good in all Manner of Swellings; for violent Falls or inward Bruises, nothing is better, for it scatters coadgulated Blood, and stops Blood that might be occasioned by the inward Parts being hurt, or a Rexis of Vessels inwardly. In the Cure of Pleurify, after Bleeding (where it is required) give a Tea Spoonful three Times a Day, in Sugar, and between Times now and then 20 or 30 Drops of spirituous Nitri dulcis, that is the sweet Spirits of Nitre.—It cures Consumptions in them that are not too far gone, except they past the Age of Fifty, by taking of it inwardly three Times a Day, a full Tea Spoonful mixt with Sugar or Honey, each Dose. It strengthens the Nerves, and is good in all Nervous Disorders, by taking of it inwardly, and anointing the Parts outwardly, keeping warm.

ANNO DECIMO TERTIO
GEORGII III. Regis.

AN ACT for allowing the free Importation of RICE into this Kingdom, from any of His Majeſty's Colonies in AMERICA, for a limited Time; and for encouraging the making of STARCH from RICE. Received the ROYAL ASSENT December 21, 1772.

WHEREAS the allowing the free Importation of Rice from any of His Majeſty's Colonies in America into Great-Britain for a limited Time, is, and will be, of great Advantage, and may be a Means of encouraging the making of Starch from Rice: May it therefore please your Majeſty, that it may be Enacted; and be Enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That from and after the paſſing of this Act, it ſhall and may be lawful for any Perſon or Perſons to Import into Great-Britain, from any of his Majeſty's Colonies in America, at any Time or Times before the firſt Day of May, One Thouſand Seven Hundred and Eighty, any Rice, without the Payment of any Subſidy, Cuſtom, Duty, or Impoſition whatſoever; any Thing in any former Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary thereof in any wiſe notwithſtanding.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That for and upon all Rice which ſhall be imported into this Kingdom Duty-free, by Virtue of this Act, and which ſhall be again exported thereout, there ſhall be paid and anſwered to his Majeſty, his Heirs and Succeſſors, a Subſidy of Poundage of Six-pence in the Pound, according to the Value or Rate ſet upon Rice imported, in the Book of Rates referred to by the Act of the Twelfth Year of King Charles the Second; which ſaid Subſidy of Six-pence in the Pound, upon ſuch Rice ſo exported, ſhall be raiſed, levied, collected, and recovered, by ſuch Ways and Means, and under ſuch Rules, Regulations, Penalties, and Forfeitures, as the Subſidy or Poundage for any Goods or Merchandize exported from Great-Britain, may be raiſed, levied, collected, or recovered, by any Act of Parliament now in Force, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purpoſes, as if the ſeveral Clauſes, Powers, Directions, Penalties, and Forfeitures, relating thereto, were particularly repeated and again enacted in the Body of this preſent Act.

And be it further Enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the ſaid Duties, granted by this Act upon Rice exported, ſhall (the neceſſary Charges of Management excepted) be paid into the Receipt of his Majeſty's Exchequer, and be there reſerved for the Diſpoſition of Parliament.

THE first, near 400 acres on a neck, Penny's Creek, (a branch of Pompon river) east and southeast; a plantation lately bought by Thomas Bee, Esq; of Mr. Maybank westward, and my other lands northward. It will admit of every advantage for a compleat plantation of itself; 100 acres tide swamp banked in, planted last year; 30 acres corn land, great part of both under ditch and fence, the remainder well covered with useful timber, very convenient; 100 acres or more of which is prime corn and indico land, the remainder (part of which hath been formerly planted) is such as will produce good rice in a seasonable year, as by raising small dams, great part may be laid under water. Hardly any spot of land, of the same quantity in the province, will make a more convenient and advantageous plantation for 40 or 50 hands, and may be planted to advantage with 25 or 30 the ensuing season. The payment will be made very easy, as but a small part of the purchase money will be soon wanted, giving approved security for the payment of the remainder.

The other part, wherein I live, about 600 acres, is extremely well known; near 200 acres (part of which is tide land) is in order for planting the ensuing season, and well improved; and upwards of 100 acres good corn land, besides an extra pasture under ditch, and near 200 acres uncleared, covered with useful timber, all good for corn, rice, or indico. Farther particulars of both, if desired, may be known of JAMES DONNOM, who is now in Charles-Town, and has a particular plat of them.

JOSEPH BEE.

N. B. I propose also, to sell my RIVER SWAMP TRACT, two miles below Pompon bridge, containing upwards of 400 acres, the greatest part swamp and tide-land.
